

Public Speaking & Business Storytelling for Leaders

Make an impact! Learn to speak with confidence and clarity with Australia's leading Public Speaking Coach.

Anyone can give a presentation. Many presenters lack structure to their talk and often take an old PowerPoint presentation, add a few new slides, and then read from the slides and wonder why the audience are checking their phones or snoozing!

Will your audience remember you and your presentation tomorrow, or three weeks from now?

INFLUENCE

Your Audience

Make a difference with your message so that you are memorable and your presentation has meaning. No death by PowerPoint.

INSPIRE

Your Team

Weave stories into your presentations to captivate and entertain. Bring your topic to life with the power of storytelling.

IGNITE

Your Speaking

Great speakers are in demand. Use speaking as part of your marketing toolkit to boost your brand and credibility.

On-site or off-site training tailored to your needs. Individual speaker coaching available on request. Whether you want to impress in the boardroom or the ballroom, you want to speak with confidence on the podium or in front of the camera, you will discover new ways to boost your credibility and charisma with Speaking Savvy training.

Lisa's coaching offered a constructive challenge to the way I framed my TEDx talk. The power of creating a human-centred story to effectively convey a technical message was a revelation to me.
